AVINO REPORTS FATAL ACCIDENT AT PROPERTY

Avino Silver & Gold Mines Ltd. (ASM: TSX/NYSE American; FSE:GV6, “Avino” or “the Company”) regrets to report the tragic loss of life of a contractor’s employee at the Avino Mine Property in Durango, Mexico.

“On behalf of Avino, we extend our sincerest sympathies and support to the families, friends and colleagues of the deceased,” stated David Wolfin, President and CEO of Avino.

Avino's management and staff are supporting the Mexican authorities with their investigation and currently Avino does not expect the accident to affect production from the Avino Mine.

About Avino:

Avino is a silver producer from its wholly owned Avino Mine near Durango, Mexico. The Company’s silver, gold and copper production remains unhedged. The Company’s mission and strategy is to create shareholder value through its focus on profitable organic growth at the historic Avino Property and the strategic acquisition of the La Preciosa property. Avino currently controls mineral resources, as per NI 43-101, that total 368 million silver equivalent ounces, within our district-scale land package. We are committed to managing all business activities in a safe, environmentally responsible, and cost-effective manner, while contributing to the well-being of the communities in which we operate.
